CHAPTER III

PROCEDURES ON AGREEMENTS AND ABUSE OF DOMINANT POSITION

SECTION I

PROCEDURES ON INVESTIGATIONS

Article 41

Inquiries into sectors of the economy

If, in any sector of the economy, the rigidity of prices or other circumstances suggest that competition is being restricted or distorted in the market, the Authority, by its initiative or at the request of the Assembly, or of regulatory institutions of specific sectors may conduct a general inquiry into that sector.

Article 42

Procedures of preliminary investigations

1. The Secretariat, by its own initiative, by the request of the undertakings concerned, or by a complaint of a third party, may initiate preliminary investigations. It initiates such a procedure in all cases when the Commission requires it. The procedures of preliminary investigations are followed on the basis of regulation on authority functioning.

2. The preliminary investigation procedure does not imply the right to consult files.

Article 43

In-depth investigations

1. If signs of a restraint of competition exist, the Secretariat, by the approval of Commission, shall open an in-depth investigation. It initiates such a procedure in all cases when the Commission requires it.

2. The Commission shall determine the order in which investigations shall be conducted, on the basis of regulation on Authority functioning.

Article 44

Interim measures

1. The Commission, by its initiative or by a request from the undertakings concerned and at any time of the procedure, may adopt interim measures, as stipulated in article 61, c), ç), d) and dh) of this law, in cases of an emergency justified from a risk of serious and irreparable harm to competition and where there might be an infringement of articles 4 and 9.

2. The decision, as referred to paragraph 1 of this article, is taken for a specific time and may be renewed when it is necessary.

Article 45

Commission decisions

1. Where the Commission finds that there is an infringement of articles 4 and 9, it by decision requires the undertakings concerned and groupings of undertakings to bring such infringement to an end. To ensure the prohibition of the infringement, the Commission may impose on undertakings and grouping of undertakings any obligations necessary, including remedies of a structural nature. On the basis of the principle of the proportionality, structural remedies can be envisaged when the measures to act in a specified way or not to act, are not efficient.

2. Where the undertakings concerned offer commitments such as to meet the Commission's objections expressed in a preliminary estimation communicated to the undertakings, the Commission may, by decision, make those commitments binding on the undertakings as conditions and obligations.

Article 46

Revocation of the decisions

Commission may revoke or modify its decisions by imposing conditions, or supplemented obligations, insofar as:

- a) One or some of the facts which has served as a basis of taking the decision has changed;
- b) The parties contravene an obligation attached to the decision;
- c) The decision is based on incorrect information or was obtained by means of deceit.

Article 47

Publication of opening the investigation and of decisions

1. The Authority shall give notice of the opening of an in-depth investigation in the Authority Official Bulletin. Such notice shall state the purpose of the investigation and the parties concerned. It shall further invite concerned third parties to come forward if they wish to take part in the investigation. Non-publication shall not prevent the investigation from being conducted. In case of non-publication, the notification shall be published in the first succeeding number of Official Bulletin.

2. The Commission decisions taken for the infringement of articles 4 and 9 shall be published in the Authority Official Bulletin. The publication shall state the names of the undertakings, their office, economic activity of the undertakings concerned, the main content of the decision, including also any penalties imposed.

SECTION II

PROCEDURES FOR EXEMPTION OF THE AGREEMENTS FROM PROHIBITION

Article 48

Competencies to grant exemptions

Commission is the only competent body to decide upon granting exemptions as referred in articles 5, 6 and 7 of this Law.

Article 49

Notification of the agreements

1. In order to be exempted from the prohibition, as referred to articles 5, 6 and 7, the horizontal, vertical and license agreements and changes and amendments thereto, must be notified to the Authority.

3. The notification, given to the Authority under paragraph 1 and 2 of this article, shall not contain incorrect information in order to obtain an exemption for the notifying party or for a third party, as referred in articles 5 and 6 of this Law, or to cause the Authority not to object in the cases stipulated in article 7. The Authority issues the guidelines for the notification form.

Article 50

Decision on granting the exemption

1. Agreements described in Articles 5 and 6 of this Law, may be exempted from the prohibition under Article 4 only by a decision of the Commission. The exemptions for agreements as referred in article 7 shall take effect, unless the Commission objects, by a decision, within a period of three months from receipt of the notification.

2. Exemptions may be granted with effect from the date of notification. The exemptions as referred in articles 5, 6, and 7 of this Law are limited in time and may be granted to the undertakings subject to conditions and obligations.

3. Exemptions may, upon application, be extended in time, if the conditions of article 5, 6 and 7 of this Law continue to be satisfied. An extension shall be granted at least for those participating undertakings which have declared their consent thereto in writing to the Authority. The declaration shall be made independently by each undertaking and may be made only three months prior to the expiry of the exemption.

Article 51

Revocation of the exemption

1. Commission may revoke or modify its decisions, by imposing conditions or supplemented obligations, insofar as:

- a) one or some of the facts which has served as a basis of taking the decision has changed;
- b) the parties contravene an obligation attached to the decision;
- c) the exemption is based on incorrect information or was obtained by means of deceit;
- ç) the parties abuse the granted exemption.

2. In the cases of points b), c) and ç) of paragraph 1 of this article, the exemption decision shall be revoked with retroactive effect.
