Outcome (tick relevant columns):		√	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	√	√	√	√	√	√	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Reason for study (what were the problems)?	A Parliament Resolution from July 2009 aimed at defending the cork industry, urged the PCA to conduct “(...) a thorough and urgent investigation into what is happening in this important and strategic sector for the national economy (...) with a particular focus on imports and exports, and take measures and issue recommendations it deems necessary to restore a normal market functioning and insure the stability of the sector” [our translation from Portuguese]. Concerns about the functioning of the cork sector were also conveyed to the PCA by some industry operators. This Report aimed at characterizing the full industry vertical chain in Portugal, from the extraction of cork to the marketing of the various cork based products, as well as the current regulatory framework of the sector, and issued a set of recommendations aiming at the promotion of a more efficient functioning of the various stages along the vertical chain, through the reduction of certain efficiency reducing information asymmetries between operators, the relaunching of a well-functioning commodities market for the different raw materials, and a revision of various legislations regulating the sector.

Market:	Cotton Fibre for textiles and clothing in Colombia
End Date:	2011	Competition Enforcement	Consumer Enforcement	Consumer Education	Business Education	Voluntary Business Compliance	Voluntary Business Action	Recommendations to Government for Changes in the Law	Recommendations to Government to Change Market Structure	Recommendations for Changes to Government Policy	Referral to Third Parties	No Problems Found

Reason for study (what were the problems)?	In Colombia, different varieties of cotton fibre are grown. Despite the double harvest per year, domestic supply is not enough to meet the demand of the textile industry having to appeal to imports to increase supply. Within the market, there are restrictions to the competition from the demand side since the number of producers is lower than the number of buyers allowing the former group to exercise purchase power.
